

Register Avonto Direct Connect Software

Avonto Direct Connect Registration

- You will be prompted to register your software when you open Avonto Direct Connect for the first time. Avonto Direct Connect must be registered to your name or your business name in order to start using the software. There is no charge to register your product.
- When you open the software for the first time you will see a registration form. Enter in all the appropriate information ensuring all information is correct and accurate. You will be emailed your registration details to the email address you supply during registration.